On Friday afternoon last a suit was begun in the Circuit Court by James D. Beggs, of Orlando, against Isaac A. Stewart, of DeLand, claiming damages to the amount of $1,500. The suit is for attorney's fees in the old case of Ropes vs. Stewart, at which time Stewart was given a verdict of $8,000 against Ropes, and most of the old man's property was sold to satisfy the judgment. It is reported on the streets that Stewart sent Beggs a check for fifty dollars as his fee for securing this judgment against Ropes, that Beggs returned the check, and now sues for $1,500. The jury that tried this famous case consisted of Leo Fisher, J. A. Blauvelt, P. M. Holm, Weston Clifton, W. C. McKenzie and E. P. McElroy.

WHAT IS A GENTLEMAN?

What is a gentleman? Is it a thing decked with a scarf-pin, a chain and a ring. Dressed in a suit of immaculate style, sporting an eye-glass, a top, and a smile? Talking of operas, concerts, and balls. Evening assemblies, and afternoon calls. Spinning himself at "cat houses" and bazars. Whistling mavericks, and smoking cigars?

What is a gentleman? Say, is it one boasting of conquests and deeds he has done? One who unobtrusively glories to speak things which should call up a blush to his cheek?

One who, whilst railing at actions unjust, Robs some young heart of its pureness and trust?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one knowing instinctively what he should shun, speaking no word that can injure or pain, spreading no scandal and dropping no stain? One who knows how to put each at his ease, striving instinctively always to please? One who can tell, by a glance at your cheek, When to be silent and when he should speak?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one honestly eating the bread he has won, living in simplicity, fearing his God, leaving no stain on the path he has trod? Caring not whether his coat may be old, Prizing sincerity far above gold? Becoming not whether his hand may be hard, Stretching it boldly to grasp its reward?

What is a gentleman? Say, is it birth? Makes a man noble or adds to his worth? Is there a family tree to be had? Spreading enough to cover what is bad? Seek out the man who has God for his guide, Nothing to laugh for and nothing to hide? Be he a noble, or be he a tradesman, This is the gentleman nature has made.

They come to us so highly recommended that we can hardly hesitate to say to our people to become members of this division quick before it gets full. "There are many things you should avoid, young man," said the bachelor philosopher, "but there is one in particular that I would warn you against."

"What is that?" queried the unsophisticated youth.

"The widow who firmly believes that she is an example of the survival of the fittest," replied the old man, with a long-drawn-out sigh.
